

Children with Disabilities: Know Your Rights and Responsibilities Under Federal Law

NOVEMBER 2, 2023 AT 12PM AND 6PM

A Virtual Event Hosted By the Education Working Group

Please join us for a virtual presentation and discussion from the Education Working Group about the civil rights of children with disabilities. This year's focus topic is children with Autism Spectrum Disorder, but the group works to help children and parents with all kinds of disabilities. This presentation is designed for the parents, caregivers and guardians of children with disabilities as well as directors and staff who work at child-care organizations and camps.

About The Education Working Group:

The Education Working Group is organized by the Connecticut United States Attorney's Office and is composed of representatives from state and federal agencies, nonprofits, and the community at large. The group meets regularly to discuss the civil rights issues that arise in education and child-care settings.
